

FLYING POPULAR AT PALM BEACH

Trips Through the Clouds Enjoyed Like Golf and Fishing.

NEW YORK COLONY GROWS

Private Cars, Yachts and Houseboats Take Travellers from the North to Florida.

PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 31.—Travelling by air has become such a popular pastime here that flying has been added to the list of daily sports, including golf, tennis, bathing, fishing, bicycling and wheel chair riding, and the host of hostesses entertaining a house party in making plans for the day arrangements perhaps a foursome for golf, or deep-sea fishing, and another foursome or a flight to Bimini Island or Miami or a trip through the clouds for a bird's eye view of Palm Beach, Beach.

Captain George Garrett Dunn, Jr., a well known army aviator who was in France in charge of supplies for the squadrons going to the front during the war, carries passengers aloft each pleasant day in his flying boat. Captain Dunn is associated with Frank Mills, of the Eslington School of Aviation in Philadelphia, who is also an instructor, and when not making flights is engaged in teaching society people to fly.

Among those who recently made a trip through the clouds are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh de L. Willoughby, Jr., who are here on their houseboat Seminole Queen; Mrs. de L. King Clarke, who lately arrived from Philadelphia at her lake front home; Mr. and Mrs. David Randolph Calhoun, of St. Louis, who are occupying their cottage; Mr. and Mrs. William G. Warden, who also have a house; Mrs. Archibald Mc-Neill, who was Miss Anna O'Connell, the prima donna of "She's a Good Fellow." Miss J. J. Chase and her brother Harold Chase, of Coronado Beach, who are the guests of their uncle, Mr. Addison Miner.
Mr. Joseph Riter, who is entertaining a large party at his home, Al Ponte, also made his first flight during the week with several of his guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dillman, the latter professionally known as Miss Marjorie Randolph. Miss Olga Samoroff, pianist, who in private life is Mrs. Leopold Stokowski, wife of the conductor of the Philadelphia orchestra; Lester Donahue, one of the younger American concert pianists; Miss Rose Wirtlin, well known contralto singer from New York; Mrs. A. Buckminster Williams, Miss Marion McLane, Mr. Edward L. Valli and Mr. Andrew F.
Pulton, all from New York.

Musical Colony Represented.
Mrs. Samoroff and Mr. Donahue were heard at the concert given at the Mines in the new music room of Mr.
Riter's home for his friends who are lovers of good music. Joseph Hoffmann, who was here for a few days early in the week, with Mrs. Hoffmann, were the principal guests at a luncheon given by Mr.
Riter on board his houseboat. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmann, who have a home in Alton, S. C., were on a tour of the Florida seaplane here at present not used commercially, but recently became a member of the Bimini Bay Rod and Gun Club, and has made a number of flights to Bimini Island, where they are building a clubhouse to accommodate about seventy-five persons, and will have in addition some thirty or forty tents to accommodate the overflow.

Private cars, yachts and houseboats which were absent during the war, are now arriving in large numbers. The houseboats brought by the Vanderbilt party, including Messrs. William K. Vanderbilt and Frederick W. Vanderbilt, who had not been here for several years, and who at the Royal Barge on company with Winfield S. Hoyt and Dr. George A.
Payne Whitney came down early in the week on his private car Wanderer, ending a coasting tour of the Florida, with Lawrence Waterbury, Edward McCallough and Finley Peter Dunne, who accompanied him. Mr. Whitney is expected to return later in the season.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney, who will also be in the season, is awaiting them in Jacksonville.
The houseboat Silvan, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Withers, of New York, and named for their three children, Miss Louise and Ann, is again in Lake Worth after an absence of several seasons. Miss Louise Withers, who was wounded during the war and who returned last March, is with her family and her brother, Mr. Silas Withers.

occurred soon after his return from overseas, will probably join the party later in the season.

her appearance in Lake Worth after being overhauled. The Baruchs, who have a cottage here, will cruise later in the season.
Mr. Henry W. Savage's houseboat Savannah is here under charter to Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis, Jr., of New York.

staying at the Breakers, has chartered the houseboat Siesta, and has given several luncheons and dinners on board during the week.

The yacht Galatea, built the past summer for Mr. and Mrs. Perre Lorillard Barbey, has also recently appeared in Lake Worth and the Barbours do considerable entertaining on board. Mr. John M. L.
Rutherford accompanied Mr. Barbey to Jacksonville to bring the Galatea down.
Colonel Robert M. Thompson's houseboat Everglades, in which he has visited Palm Beach for a number of years past, is one of the largest craft here at present.

have their yacht Sunbeam at anchor in Lake Worth opposite their home. Mr. and Mrs. S. Ross Campbell take frequent trips on board their yacht The Quakeress, and

SPORTSMEN AFTER TUNA IN FLORIDA

Fish Appear There and Handsome Prizes Are Offered for Biggest Ones Taken.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 31.—The appearance this season of tuna in these waters has added interest for anglers, who formerly had to go to Catalina Islands, in the Pacific, for this sport. A tuna weighing 150 pounds was recently taken in the bay by a local boatman, making the second large one taken here this winter. Many small ones have been caught. The Miami Anglers' Club will add a prize for the largest tuna to the already long list of prizes for fishes caught by members of the club.

A large number of prizes are offered by banking concerns and merchants, as well as by individuals, which make the sport very alluring. Among well known writers and publishers here who are interested in the sport are Mr. J. H. Wood, of Forest and Stream, who is passing some time among the keys fishing, and Mr. Barton W. Currie, of Philadelphia, editor of The Country Gentleman, who is a guest of Mr.

A committee of the midwinter motorboat regatta announced its programme this week for the various races to be run over the courses in Biscayne Bay and also the races between Miami and Bimini Key and Miami and Gun Key.

Instead of having all the races in one week, they will be extended over four weeks, with the chief event on Saturday.
Beginning February 14 the races will be run every Saturday until and including March 6. These Saturday races will be the long distance ones for express cruisers and races over the local courses.
Handsome trophies are offered for these races and it is expected that more boats will participate than at any time since the beginning of the war. With the release of many motor boats used by the navy for coast patrol, they are again in private ownership and are now in Florida waters for the winter season. The motorboat races and the Biscayne Bay Yacht Club events are the smart sport functions of the season here.

Aeroplane has passed from the fast stage to a regular feature of transportation in Miami. The Aero Limited has established a bi-weekly schedule between Miami and Nassau, and will make trips to Key West, Havana, Bimini Island and Palm Beach by arrangement. One of the speediest parties to go by air to Bimini Island was composed of Mr. Leonard Gray, of Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. George Wheeler, of Uniontown, Pa.; Mrs. William H. March, Mr. Charles Thompson and T. J. Peters, of Miami. They flew over the back the same day. Mrs. W. A. passenger service by the middle of February.

Local anglers have a new fishing record to beat. One day this week Mr.
Woolveton, of South Bend, Ind., returned from a trip of a few hours on the St.

Finds Way to Leave Daytona, Fla.—Many Yachts There.

ORMOND BEACH, Fla., Jan. 31.— Trains or the missing of a train no longer hold any terrors in Daytona. On last Tuesday Mr. Joseph Tobin, of Halifax, N. S., received a telegram calling him home. The fast train for the North had gone, but in a few minutes Mr. Tobin had engaged W. F. Sullivan and his hydro-trip of ninety miles was made in less than fifty-five minutes.

Mr. Julian A. Arroyo, of New York, has purchased a site for a winter home here and engaged an architect in New York to plan the house. His new estate has been developed out of a tropical jungle, and it is there that "Poppy" was filmed by a moving picture company. The house will conform to the Spanish traditions of architecture and will be Mr. Arroyo's year-round home when he retires from Wall street.

The Halifax River Yacht Club has been a rendezvous of pleasure craft from the north. The Chieftain, with Mr. J. Ogden Armour and party on board, is making its headquarters there awaiting the refitting of the Chieftain, Jr., a speed boat, at a local boat building yard. The Get-Away, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Swift, of New York, on board, has been there. On their way here the yacht, in an effort to avoid a collision with another yacht, ran aground and it was several days before she could be floated and come up the Halifax.
Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft Davis, of Boston, on board their yacht, the Evangelina, stopped a week and then went on to the winter home at Coconut Grove. Mr. and Mrs.

they will be joined by Mr. du Pont.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., Jan. 31.—There was little for sojourners to do here this week but sleigh-ride, snow and sled preventing all other out-of-door diversions. However, good sleighing comes seldom, and the visinight again made skating on the lakes possible. Excluded from outdoor enjoyment, sojourners turned to indoor activi-
